

MEETING MINUTES

March 8, 2017

Officers Present:

Zarin Rahman '18 (somewhat miffed that freshmen aren't here), Raahil Sha '18 (co-created the event that ensured that the freshmen wouldn't be here), Waleed Awan '18 (looks just like he normally does. Never change, Waleed, never change), Anwar Omeish '19 (Held a rally yesterday, looks more or less like a zombie, or maybe a wraith), Saim Raza '18 (he showed up so so so late, wow Saim), Omar Sorour '18 (knows how to book rooms)

General Present:

Humza Tahir '18 (Wooo we have a general member at one of these meetings!)

JETPAC Present:

Nadeem (He lost the bun in his hair, I almost never recognized him), Shawn (Shaun?) (From New Zealand, pretty cool accent)

Other Present:

This random guy prayed Isha and then left (I think I should make an HIS status chart - it would be moderately amusing to parse through)

JETPAC

- They made a strategy to get people elected locally
- Want to make Muslims into elected officials
 - Through Justice, Education, and Technology
- Made a curriculum for political education and community organization
- JETPAC wants to collaborate with HIS on training, civics, participation, etc
 - Service and mobilization
 - Leadership training
 - On-campus voter registration
- Action Items:
 - Twice-semesterly workshops on ways to get votes (HIS and other MSAs)
 - Inter-MSA planning with alumni funding, bigger resources, longitudinal trajectories
 - Want to support us if we need help with Harvard Administration
 - Talk to individuals in HIS who want to speak one-on-one
 - Mentorship? Something greater than workshops
 - Voter registration
